MONTHLY COMMENTPERFORMANCE

Following the pleasing performances seen in both March and April, May was a difficult month for Utilico, with the NAV per share falling by 8.4%. This represents an under-performance of both the FTSE All-Share, the FTSE Utilities, and the Dow Jones World Utilities (GBP adjusted) indices which all fell by 6.6%, 6.8%, and 3.7% respectively.

During May, markets were mainly concerned with the continued uncertainties regarding European sovereign debt. The European Union has announced a Euro 750bn package which is intended to provide stability in the debt markets by enabling the European Central Bank to purchase bonds. In addition, the package includes the creation of a Special Purpose Vehicle which itself will issue bonds. The funds raised will be used to provide financial support to European countries experiencing difficulties. At the same time Governments have begun to announce details of austerity programs in an effort to bring budgets into balance. Three main issues have come to the fore. Firstly that any "bail-out" package simply defer the problem of debt repayment and swaps the potential liability from investors to taxpayers. Secondly, the size of the package is insufficient. Thirdly, uncertainty over the potential effect that reductions in Government spending will have on output, employment and corporate earnings.

While Europe has been wrestling with a lack of growth, much of the rest of the world is experiencing the opposite. Interest rate rises have occurred in Brazil, Australia, New Zealand, and Malaysia to try and control inflationary pressures. China continues to experience strong growth and price pressures, with property prices and wages all moving upwards.

PORTFOLIO

Most positions within the top 10 investments fell in value including Infratil (down 5.3%), Utilico Emerging Markets (down 1.1%), Resolute (down 8.8%), Jersey Electricity (down 5.2%), and Renewable Energy Generation (down 5.9%). These falls were caused by general market, rather than stock specific, conditions. The fall in Resolute was somewhat surprising given the continued strength in the gold price. Offsetting these declines was modest strength in Keytech, Billing Services, and Ascendant.

A new investment into the top 10 is Permanent Investments Limited, an SPV investment into the capital of Bermuda Commercial Bank. This replaces Oceania Capital Partners, an investment which was discussed in April's report, which fell in value in May due to a cash return of capital worth some £620,000 to Utilico.

During the month, Utilico exercised its Infratil 2010 warrants, investing a further £9.8m into Infratil Ordinary shares.

CURRENCY

The company maintained unchanged its forward currency contracts against the New Zealand Dollar at NZ$90.5 million, corresponding to the Utilico's underlying exposure in this currency. In addition, forward currency contracts were also held for USD 22.9m, AUD 56.7m and EUR 10.5m.

DEBT & CASH

Utilico's £20.0m debt facility with the Royal Bank of Scotland was extended to £30.0 million during the month, and was fully utilised at the month end. Cash on hand at the end of May amounted to £3.5m.

ZDPs

The market prices of Utilico's 2012, 2014, and 2016 ZDP Shares all fell during May, by 1.3%, 2.8%, and 4.4% respectively. The three tranches offered yields to maturity of 5.6%, 6.1%, and 9.2% for the 2012, 2014 and 2016 maturities respectively. Asset covers at final redemption value stood at 3.07x, 1.96x and 1.38x for the 2012, 2014, and 2016 maturities respectively.

OTHER

Utilico's Ordinary Share Price fell by 11.1% during May, to close the month at 128.50p. At the end of May, Utilico's ordinary shares stood at a discount of 25.8% to their underlying NAV, while a combination of all Utilico's traded instruments, including ZDPs and warrants, were priced at a 12.5% discount to NAV.
