PERFORMANCE

For the month of March, UIL's NAV total return decreased by 2.5%, ending the month at 267.34p, underperforming the FTSE All Share Total Return Index which declined by 1.8% over the month.

During March, the markets remained weak due to concerns about inflationary pressures persisting as the Federal Reserve became more hawkish, hiking the base rate a further 0.25 basis points to a range of 1.50% and 1.75% and indicating the potential for a further two more hikes in 2018. This coupled with the import tariffs the US has imposed on China during the period creates additional waves in the financial markets as there are now concerns of a global trade war. The S&P 500 and Dow Jones Industrial Average indices were subsequently down by 2.7% and 3.7% respectively, while the Eurostoxx was down by 2.3%, the Japanese Nikkei down by 2.8% and the Australian ASX 200 down by 4.3%.

Emerging markets echo this sentiment as the Chinese Shanghai Composite was down by 2.8%, the Thai SET down by 2.9% and the Philippines PSEi down by 5.8%. The few exceptions were the Malaysia Bursa, up by 0.4% and the Romanian Bucharest, up by 3.1%.

Sterling over the period appreciated against the main currencies, up by 1.8% against the US dollar, up by 3.4% against the Australian Dollar and gains of 4.2% against the Brazilian Real, and 3.3% against the Chilean Peso. The only currency which Sterling depreciated against was the Mexican Peso, declining by 1.5%.

Commodity prices during March saw a positive movement with gold up by 0.5% to USD1,325/oz and Brent crude oil up by 6.8% to USD70.27/bbl on the back of increased tension in the Middle East. The copper price fell by 2.6% over the month.

PORTFOLIO

There were no changes to the constituents of the top ten holdings of UIL during March.

Resolute Mining was a strong performer over the period, up by 12.2% over the period on the back of the market generally being more positive on the sector due to increased perception of risk in other sectors. Afterpay however was down by 10.6% due to market volatility and Utilico Emerging Markets' share price was down by 3.6% on the back of wider emerging markets weakness.

During March purchases for the month totalled £3.1m and sales were £4.5m.

DEBT

Borrowings at the month end totalled £41.5m, down from £46.8m as at 28 February 2018.

The foreign exchange hedge positions to Sterling were broadly unchanged at the month end at AUD 140.9m, NZD 14.4m and EUR 6.0m. The US Dollar hedge position increased during the month to USD 105.5m.

OTHER

UIL's share price increased during March, up by 2.5% ending the month at 167.00p with the discount to NAV narrowing to 37.5% from 41.0% in February.

The 2020 and 2022 ZDP share prices recorded an increase in value of 0.4% and 1.2% respectively, whilst the 2018 and 2024 ZDP shares declined by 0.3% and 1.0% respectively.

During March 2018, UIL announced that UIL Finance intends to issue up to 25m 2026 ZDP Shares pursuant to a Placing, Intermediaries Offer and Offer for Subscription. In addition, up to 25m 2026 ZDP Shares (less the number of 2026 ZDP Shares issued pursuant to the Initial Issue) may also be issued pursuant to one or more Placings under the Placing Programme.

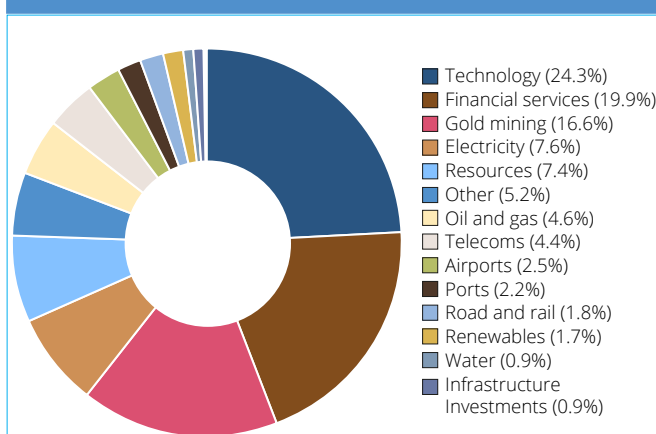

The second quarterly interim dividend of 1.875p per ordinary share in respect of the year ending 30 June 2018, was paid on 23 March 2018.
